Presentation at master class by NUTRIM-VLAG

On 25th November Diederick Meyer gave a presentation during a master class organised by the research school NUTRIM-VLAG. The topic of the master class was “Health Food Innovation: research, development and claim substantiation” and the lectures from an integral part of the MSc program Health Food Innovation Management that is offered at Maastricht University. The lectures were given by various representatives from food industry (e.g. Danone, Tate & Lyle, Unilever, Sensus) and Diederick Meyer’s lecture covered “Prebiotics: market, products, science and benefit claims”.
